

RAISING DAY AND INVESTITURE CEREMONY

Classes involved: 6 to 9

Date: 5th August, 2019

“If your actions create a legacy that inspires others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, then you are an excellent leader”

On 5th August, 2019 students of Salwan Public School, MV-III celebrated Raising day and Investiture Ceremony with great enthusiasm.

The programme commenced by evoking the blessings of lord almighty. The school choir group recited school prayer.

Dance is the expression of emotions, feelings and opinions through the movement of body. It is a conversation between the body and the soul. A classical dance was performed by a group of students.

This was followed by a speech given by Anandita of class 9 A spoke about raising day, highlighted the efforts of Pt. Girdhari lal Salwan who vowed to impart education to the needy. A man of great foresight, Pt. G.L Salwan conceptualized the idea of sharing of facilities and resources between public schools and the schools for the unprivileged.

Music inspires and thus fuels our creativity. It is said to be the food for the soul. After that School music lovers presented the school song.

Investiture means a formal investing of a person with authority, power, right, office and dignity. It was rightly said that 'Leaders are not born, they are made'. Investiture ceremony is one of the most important ceremony of the school as the leaders get the lesson in leadership to take charge to administer their duties. The student council members were called on stage according to their houses. Director Sir and Principal ma'am gave away the badges to the young flag bearer.

The newly appointed Students' Council was administered the oath of office by the school head girl Sanya Saini. It was a proud moment for one and all when the members pledged to uphold the values of the school.

The Principal-Seema Malik in her speech congratulated the newly elected Prefectorial Board. She emphasized on the importance of implementing morals and values amongst the students. She reiterated that the school oath is loaded with all the precious qualities required to be inculcated by every student.

The Director-Brig. (Dr.) A.K Tyagi (Retd.) in his speech said that leaders should possess two important qualities – the ability to inspire others with clear vision and proper focus in addition they should have ethical values and should be ready to sacrifice for the public cause. He advised the newly elected leaders to support the teachers in maintaining school discipline.

The Programme ended with the national anthem and council promised to discharge their duty in the rightful manner.
