

REPORT ON EUPHORIA.....CELEBRATION OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE....!

DATE - 31 JAN. 2020

Abundance of knowledge ... talents ... opportunities and fun...this is what English Euphoria was all about. It was truly the celebration of English language. As global communication expands throughout the world so does the need for a global language .English language serves this purpose .It plays a significant role in our daily life, breaking the barriers of all kinds and connecting us globally through one common lingua franca.

To honour this language of International acclaim, English Department organized Euphoria on 31st January in the school premises. A plethora of interesting activities were held with all fan fare to enable our students to deepen their understanding of the language and apply to their daily lives. These activities provided a holistic approach to their learning.

The programme commenced with welcome and felicitation of the revered guests_ Ms Ritu Bhalla, TGT English at Ever Green Public School, Vasundhara and Ms.Ankita Rohatagi an experienced writer, editor and language enthusiast, followed by a scintillating English song by our school choir to kick start the day on a melodious note. Soon, the little tots of class I and II grabbed the attention of the audience with their fancy attires, garbed in their favourite book characters like Snow white, Cinderella or Beast from the Beauty and the Beast which proved to be a visual treat for everyone. Next in line came forth the budding talents of classes III, IV, and V to showcase their marketing and promotional skills through the activity Ad zap. Their verve and versatility won the hearts of parents. Then was the time for Quiz for three teams which included students from classes VI, VII and VIII. There were set of four rounds ...the first round for Spell Bee, the second round for grammar and the third for audio and visual clippings and the final round was of Rapid Fire , a mixed bag packed with varied questions on language and literature to evolve a positive response from the competitors. All participants displayed a commendable awareness and knowledge of English. And finally, it was time for the story session. The young vibrant storytellers who have already proven their mettle in CBSE Story telling competition - Nirvani of class 5C, and Anika of class 5B came forward to narrate their interesting stories created out of their vivid imagination.

The programme concluded with Chief Guests' address and giving away of the prizes to the winners. In the end, Principal Ms Seema Malik addressed the gathering and appreciated the efforts of participants and teachers to make this event an enriching endeavor. In her address she especially congratulated the Ad zap children and defined them as Future Narrative Heads. She further said that such activities are a great platform to imbibe immense confidence among the smaller children.
