

SALWAN PUBLIC SCHOOL, MAYUR VIHAR, PHASE-III, DELHI 110 096

The Spectacular Exhibition and the World reaches Delhi

'We are the world', a spectacular and stunning exhibition, comes to Delhi in Salwan Public School, Mayur Vihar, with its fascinating illustrations of twenty six countries in their own unique, regional, cultural and national background. The school is consecrated to endow the children and faculty by providing opportunities in abundance.

The school organized the exhibition- 'We are the World' in school precinct which was an opulent and wonderful show portraying students' creativity and their talents through the medium of art, music, sculpture, artefacts and a lot more. It was a fervent way to provide a platform to students of classes III to XI to demonstrate different countries and how they acquired global identities across the world. And the teachers put their heart and soul into it for making it a great success. The models on display in the school conveyed that we share our history and legacy with continents, countries and people in a way we cannot even imagine.

The exhibition was inaugurated by the honorable Chief Guest Sh. Harpal Singh, Mentor and Chairman Emeritus, Fortis Healthcare Limited who was escorted by the Principal of the school, Seema Malik. The Chief Guest was accompanied by the Chairman Emeritus, Sh. S.D. Salwan Philanthropist and the Chairman Sh. Sushil Dutt Salwan, Salwan Education Trust.

The Director of the school, Brig (Dr) AK Tyagi (Retd) welcomed the Chief Guest Sh. Harpal Singh by felicitating him. Before proclaiming the exhibition open, The Chief Guest with all the delegates put up the peace flags. After that, the school's choir presented "The Salwan Song" while the emissaries cut the cake. And later before the cessation, our guests were gifted with beautiful paintings made by the Art teachers and children themselves.

The honorable Principal of the school, Seema Malik greeted all by sharing her journey to this exhibition. She said "Students learnt the value of research work, organizational skills & team work when putting up such an event on a grand scale. They unlocked fascinating stories and histories of the world through different beliefs, philosophy, cultures, traders, empires, warriors, education and their present economic and political system by engrossed and engaged themselves entirely into this exhibition.”

The Chief Guest appreciated the novel ideas of the participants by going to each pavilion. The exhibition provided a platform to students and innovation to the future. The enthusiasm and skill clubbed with indepth knowledge was commendable. With an endeavour to promote this attitude among students the exhibition was one of its kind.

They were really impressed to see the beautiful art work with the number of static and working models, multiple charts and stands. Not just this, the students in each pavilion were performing dances, giving speeches and singing songs in native languages of the country they were displaying. They wore the attires related to the particular country they were representing. It looked so fascinating and marvelous. They were very impressed with the artistry and effort behind the exhibits.

Salwan’s sister branches’ and many other schools’ Principals, teachers and students paid a visit to the exhibition. The budding scientists and artists of our school presented many creative ideas as awe-inspiring exhibits. Besides this, a book fair was also organized by Scholastic India in the school campus only. The hoi polloi who were present there bought lots of books.

Journalist Italo Calvino wrote in Invisible Cities, ‘The more one was lost in unfamiliar quarters of distant cities, the more one understood the other cities he had crossed to arrive there’.

We saw it happening today.
