

Hold On It's Not Over Yet

“Transfer every negative energy into an aura of positivity. It’s our perception which makes the difference in the way we feel.”

Negativity :

No words can express what trauma you go through every single day,
No noise can unleash the pain your silence holds in an unforeseen way.

Positivity :

No trauma can withstand the greatness of benevolence,
No pain can stop me from attaining solitude in my silence.

Negativity :

No life can revive you from the darkness of your duvet and emotional drain,
No painting can illustrate the war going on between your heart and brain.

Positivity :

No darkness can come in the way of hope and grace,
No war can be proven better than peace and solace.

Negativity :

No music can express what the tune of falling tears feels like,
No love can imagine what the misery of heartbreak means like.

Positivity :

No tears of grief can cease your positivity which you deserve,
No heartbreak can deprive you of the pleasure of self-love.

So, be patient because there will be a time too,
When all the misunderstanding will be gone.
So, hold on when there is nothing in you,
Except the will which says, "Hold On".
